About the Society: Founded in 1886, the SCHS has served in all aspects of preserving and recording the rich history of Suffolk County. At our museum, you can share in that history through our exhibits, educational programs, lectures, and library services that include:

- Genealogy
- Local History
- Social History
- Natural History

Our museum features ten exhibition spaces and galleries, as well as our special research library containing thousands of historic documents.

Our Weathervane Book Shop is a one-of-a-kind source for locally published and hard-to-find books on the history of Suffolk County, its people, and its communities.

Member Benefits Include:

- Free admission to the museum.
- Free use of the Library, and use of our personalized research services at reduced rates.
- Free registration to most programs, and events. Discounted registration on other paid events.
- Subscription to our email blasts and updates.
- Free subscription to our annual publication, the Journal of the Suffolk County Historical Society.
- 10% discount on books in Weathervane Book Shop.
- Featured membership benefits include your name featured in our event programs, etc.
